Job Type: Full-time (on-site)

Salary: $55,000 - $65,000 per annum plus superannuation

THE ROLE

We are currently seeking a reliable and hardworking Warehouse Storeperson to join our team at our Wynnum warehouse. This is a full-time role during day shifts (7:30 am to 4:00 pm, Monday to Friday). The position is available immediately, and you will be involved in all day-to-day warehouse operations while assisting with modernising our warehousing and distribution process.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Managing and controlling all warehouse and distribution movements.
- Coordinating and overseeing casual/seasonal staff when required.
- Picking and packing parcel orders efficiently.
- Packing and wrapping palletised orders.
- Receiving, unloading, and processing stock deliveries and containers.
- Using a computerised system to dispatch and manage consignments.
- Ensuring orders are dispatched accurately and within set timeframes.
- Communicating with transport companies to arrange freight services.
- Maintaining an organised and tidy warehouse environment.
- Collaborating with the production and sales teams to improve operational efficiencies and streamline processes.

SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

- A Certificate in Warehousing/Distribution is desirable, or previous experience in a similar warehouse role
- Current forklift licence is required
- Strong computer literacy with the ability to adapt to new software systems
- Demonstrated attention to detail with a proactive approach to work
- Excellent communication skills, both within a team and independently

WHY JOIN US?

At Couplemate™, you'll be part of a collaborative team that values creativity, innovation, and growth. We offer a supportive work environment, opportunities for personal and professional development, and a chance to make a real impact.
